

My family has klove radio station on constantly, we do not usually listen to other stations. There are many people enjoying and benefiting from this station and its content. It is an encouragement to all that listen, it is family friendly and it is wholesome for all ages.